Moments, times, seasons of emptiness

Rain fall, floods, surround by storms

The wind blows
Shakes me to my knees
There I hear You call me

To have You by my side
F#
For nothing else will satisfy

Only You can bring the peace

I need You, You alone
G#m
Can save me, from this storm
F#
So hold me in Your arms
E
Only You can bring the peace

Verse 3

I want to live my life for the big picture
By living it through the Holy Scripture
Not getting caught up in the mixture
Of this world's genres and clicks
Hip hop, cash, working for tips
But molding my mind to holy scripts
Saving people from the deadliest pits
Lifting up people's spirits
Watching the word flow from their lips
Consumed by knowledge that God hits
So hear my voice as I scream out those hits
From the one book that always sticks
In your mind to the ends of time
The holy bible, no nursery rhymes
So pick it up
Don't have one here, borrow mine
I'm sure you can find some souls to save
So stand and be brave, and make the way
Don't worry about being paid
Worry about being made into a warrior who saves
People through the Holy Spirit
So scream it out let the whole world hear it
